Docklands Academy London Summer School, London/ UK

9th–10th Grade, 20 hrs/wk, 2 wks/yr

10 June – 21 June 2024 & 2025

Student; Enrolled in the intensive English program in London fueled by a strong desire to improve my communication skills, experience living abroad, and foster social connections with students from different countries.

- Completed upper-intermediate and advanced English classes, earning official CEFR B2, B2+, and C1 progression certificates accredited by the British Council.
- Participated in daily speaking workshops, classroom debates, and group presentations, which helped me gain confidence in expressing my ideas in English.
- Immersed myself in an international learning community and made friends from diverse cultural backgrounds.
- Explored major historical, cultural, and financial districts in London—such as Canary Wharf, Greenwich, and British museums—and gained insight into life and business culture in the UK.
- Learned how to take personal responsibility, adapt to a new environment, and manage daily life independently abroad.
- Received the official certificates of completion for levels B2, B2+, and C1.

Bank of America Global Markets Virtual Experience Program (Forage)

June – Sept 2026

Participant; Voluntarily participated in the online program by Bank of America in order to learn the basics of how global financial markets work.

- Learned how sales and trading teams follow daily economic news and market movements.
- Practiced writing simple, clear market summaries and investment ideas for different types of clients.
- Explored how teamwork and basic technology help bank employees work more efficiently.

Bank of America Private Bank Virtual Experience Program (Forage)

September 2026

Participant; Took this online simulation to understand how banks communicate with families and individual clients about their long-term savings.

- Learned how advisors listen to a client's personal goals and priorities before suggesting any financial plan.
- Practiced preparing client meeting notes and matching long-term family goals with suitable saving strategies.

Citi Finance Virtual Experience Program (Forage)

September 2026

Participant; Participated in Citi's online finance program to see how finance teams inside a bank track performance and daily numbers.

- Learned how to read basic bank balance-sheet trends and key performance indicators (KPIs).
- Explored a real-world case on how the pandemic affected credit card sales and consumer spending habits.
- Gained familiarity with how banks monitor deposit trends and keep track of safety limits.

Goldman Sachs Risk Analysis Virtual Experience Program (Forage)

June 2026

Participant; Completed this introductory online module to learn what risk management means in banking.

- Introduced to the basic concepts of financial risk and why banks carefully check company profiles before lending money.
- Practiced evaluating client profiles and real-estate investments by looking at both opportunities and possible risks.

RESEARCH PROJECTS:

Macroeconomic Data Lab Website & Student Essays

10th–11th Grade, 6 hrs/wk, 30 wks/yr

2025 – Present

Founder & Student Writer; Created a personal student website (ege211.github.io/macroeconomic-data-lab) to bring together my economics essays and public charts from the World Bank.

- Learned how to collect public GDP growth and inflation data for five countries (Turkey, the US, Germany, the UK, and Japan) and display them on simple interactive charts.
- Wrote student essays on economic questions I observe around me, such as why inflation stays high when people lose trust in the central bank (The Credibility Gap) and how currency changes affect everyday prices.
- Explored how individual investors behave on Borsa Istanbul and what happens when market liquidity dries up.
- Read foundational books beyond the school curriculum (including Acemoğlu & Robinson and John Taylor) and connected their ideas to my own essays.
- Familiarized myself with academic writing rules, citation styles, and the importance of explaining the limits of simple charts honestly.

Extended Research Project on Football Finance: Arsenal FC Case Study

11th Grade, 4 hrs/wk, 10 wks/yr

July – Sept 2026

Investigator; Combined my personal passion for playing football with my interest in economics by studying 10 seasons of Arsenal FC's financial reports and match performance.

- Collected public information on player transfer spending, club wage costs, and season-by-season match statistics.
- Learned that while single football matches involve a lot of luck, consistent investment in the right players improves a team's overall play on the pitch over time.
- Discovered that simply paying higher wages does not automatically guarantee more league points without good club management.
- Strengthened my independent research, data organization, and analytical thinking skills while working on a topic I genuinely enjoy.

Business Case Study on Fast-Fashion Strategy: Inditex (Zara)

11th Grade, 3 hrs/wk, 6 wks/yr

2026

Investigator; Researched how Inditex (Zara) manages its supply chain and competes in the global clothing industry.

- Learned how basic business frameworks (such as Porter's Five Forces and Value Chain analysis) help explain why a company succeeds.
- Studied how producing clothes close to stores in 2–3 weeks helps Zara avoid unsold stock and respond quickly to customer trends.
- Reflected on the challenges facing modern retail companies, including online competitors and environmental sustainability.

Student Research Project on Banking & Company Financial Statements

11th Grade, 5 hrs/wk, 12 wks/yr

2026

Investigator; Undertaken to practice reading real company annual reports (Form 10-K) and historical World Bank banking data.

- Compared how large global banks and smaller advisory firms make decisions about sharing profits through dividends and share buybacks.
- Explored historical data from past banking crises across different countries to see how rapid credit growth can create financial risks.
- Learned that clear accounting numbers and basic financial ratios are essential for understanding a company's true health.

WORK EXPERIENCE:

TEB Arval (BNP Paribas Group) Internship

11th Grade, 40 hrs/wk, 1 wk/yr

19 Jan – 26 Jan 2026

Intern; Engaging in workplace observation across the Fleet Sales, Operations, and Human Resources departments at TEB Arval Head Office enhanced my personal and professional growth.

- Gained practical insight into how corporate fleet leasing works, from preparing customer proposals to managing long-term business relationships.
- Observed how the Human Resources and Operations teams coordinate daily workflows and solve administrative bottlenecks across departments.
- Attended team discussions and learned how employees in a multinational partnership (BNP Paribas Group) communicate and track their goals.
- Enhanced my adaptability, time management, and teamwork skills in a real corporate office setting.

Haber Tekstil Dış Ticaret (Bohoo Textile Supplier) Internship

11th Grade, 35 hrs/wk, 2 wks/yr

Jan – Feb 2026

Intern; Completed an observational internship in the Export Department to understand how international trade and textile exports operate in practice.

- Familiarized myself with international export tasks, including customs documentation, order tracking, and shipping schedules for European retail brands.
- Observed how mid-sized Turkish exporters communicate with foreign buyers and manage production deadlines.
- Learned that building mutual trust and delivering orders on time are just as important as price when competing in global markets.

Hazev Restaurant Voluntary Work Experience, Canary Wharf, London/ UK

9th–10th Grade, 15 hrs/wk, 2 wks/yr

Summer 2024 / 2025

Voluntary Intern; Worked voluntarily at a busy restaurant in London's Canary Wharf financial district to gain hands-on experience in a fast-paced service environment.

- Observed daily front-of-house operations during busy lunch and dinner hours where business professionals and local guests dine.
- Helped with welcoming guests, organizing tables, and supporting smooth communication between the service staff and kitchen.
- Learned how speed, teamwork, and staying calm under pressure directly affect customer happiness.

Limehouse Library Hotel Voluntary Work Experience, London/ UK

9th–10th Grade, 15 hrs/wk, 2 wks/yr

Summer 2024 / 2025

Voluntary Intern; Completed a certified voluntary placement at a boutique, library-themed hotel in East London.

- Observed front-desk reception duties, guest check-in and check-out procedures, and daily coordination with housekeeping staff.
- Experienced the difference between a fast-paced restaurant and a boutique hotel, learning how calm communication and attention to small details make travelers feel welcome.
- Practiced my spoken English every day by helping international guests with questions and local directions.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT PROJECTS:

Sister School Book Collection Campaign (Kardeş Okul Projesi), Istanbul/ Turkey Sept 2023 – Present
9th–11th Grade, 4 hrs/wk, 8 wks/yr
Volunteer; Volunteered every school year to support students at under-resourced sister schools across Turkey by collecting books and study materials.

- Encouraged classmates across 9th, 10th, and 11th grades to donate textbooks, storybooks, and test preparation books.
- Sorted, categorized, and packed collected books into boxes according to grade levels so they could be easily used in sister school libraries.
- Reinforced my sense of social responsibility, empathy, and commitment to helping peers access better educational resources.

SPORTS ACTIVITIES :

Football (School Team), 4 hrs/wk, 32 wks/yr 2023 – Present
Learned the fundamentals of competitive team football, including tactical positioning, passing combinations, defensive organization, and physical conditioning.

- Selected for the FMV Işık High School football team and competed in official inter-school matches across Istanbul.
- Won the 3rd Place Bronze Medal at the Istanbul Inter-District High School Football Championship.
- Enriched my teamwork, mental resilience, and leadership skills by supporting teammates during challenging matches.
- Learned how to manage my time effectively by balancing regular afternoon football practices with AP classes and school exams.

MUSIC & ART:

Piano, 2 hrs/wk, 40 wks/yr Ongoing
• Learned the fundamentals of piano playing, including reading sheet music, rhythm control, hand coordination, and dynamic expression.

- Practiced both classical pieces and modern melodies, which helped me build patience and long-term self-discipline.
- Used music as a creative and relaxing balance alongside my academic studies.
